

Case Studies in Conservation
2014 Seminar Schedule
4 – 5:15 pm, Tuesdays
Holdsworth Hall 305

[offered as a part of NRC 575, but the seminars are open to the public]

February 4	Wayne Feiden. Director of Planning and Development, City of Northampton Land protection through zoning, municipal acquisition, easement, and limited development
February 11	Ben Wright. Land Conservation Specialist, Kestrel Trust. Regional land trust land protection example(s).
February 25	Andrew Bentley, CR Stewardship Assistant, and Sally Naser, CR Monitoring Specialist, The Trustees of Reservations. Defense of conservation restrictions.
March 4	Tom Lautzenheiser. Board member, Pascommuck Land Trust . Local land protection and outreach examples of an all-volunteer land trust
March 11	Bob Wilber. Director of Land Protection, Massachusetts Audubon Society Land protection by a statewide conservation organization
March 25	Katie Blake. Executive Director, Massconn Regional Conservation Partnership.
April 1	Grace Adzima. Co-chair, Belchertown Agricultural Commission.
April 8	Emily Boss. Land Protection Specialist, Franklin Land Trust Regional land trust land protection examples with a focus on agriculture.
April 15	Jay Rasku, North Quabbin Regional Landscape Coordinator, and Sarah Wells, Land Conservation Associate. Mount Grace Land Conservation Trust. Community involvement and conservation outreach.
April 22	Sam Lovejoy. Land protection specialist, Mass Wildlife. Land protection from the perspective of a state conservation agency
April 29	Sonya LeClair. Programs Coordinator. New England Forestry Foundation. The importance and power of working with volunteers to advance conservation at the local level.